To further update you on the effects of the upcoming "Furlough Days" implemented by the Los Angeles Superior Court, the court has released a clarifying "Summary of Services" beginning July 15, 2009. (Click here for Official Notice)

As stated in this court release, the following services should be available on the designated furlough days:

- Requests for domestic violence, elder abuse or civil harassment restraining order involving stalking and/or threats of violence.
- Papers may be filed in the Clerk's Office by leaving them in a secure drop box. Any filed papers left in a drop box by 4:30 p.m. on July 15 will be considered filed on July 15. No review of filings will be conducted. No copies will be made by the clerk's office staff.
- Payment of fines and fees will be accepted through secured drop boxes only. No receipts will be given on July 15 for payment of fines or fees.
- People whose traffic citations list July 15 as the date to report to the court can receive a continuance of that matter at the courthouse to which the person was ordered to report.
- Arraignments of defendants who are in custody.
- Surrender of defendants with outstanding bench warrants.
- Probable cause determinations.
- Certain Mental Health Court hearings.
- Detention hearings in both juvenile delinquency and juvenile dependency.

We will update you as new information becomes available.

Thank you,
